FARMERS' SOCIAL ORDER.

George E. Barstow, a Leading Texan, Tells of It at Chicago.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—A new social order for farmers is pictured by George E. Barstow of Barstow, Tex., president of the International Irrigation congress, who is in Chicago on business connected with the big gathering to be held in Seattle next summer.

Great tracts of land where the farmers will not live on the land, but in towns, from which they will hasten by the aid of fast horses or in automobiles, or interurban cars to cultivate the soil, was the "new things which he declared would soon become a fact.

Mr. Barstow is known as the "father of irrigation in the southwest." He has himself put through great private irrigation projects at Barstow, and has been a prime mover in inducing the federal government to build the systems which will make fertile over 3,000,000 acres of land, once a desert.

It is on these government tracts that the old isolated farm house is to become a thing of the past.

The government is laying out towns every five miles, he said.

"Thus no farm will be much more than two and a half miles from a town. The farms will be small, ten to forty acres, and the farming extensive. Under these circumstances the farmers will live in towns of 1500 to 2,000 people, enjoying all the benefits of urban life—school, churches and social life. At the same time they will be within as easy reach of their farms as is the average Chicagoan of his business.

"A tide from the city to the country has already set in. Many college graduates have chosen farming on irrigated tracts for their life work."

CAUSES CONJECTURE.

Peculiar Advertisement Appears in a Chicago Morning Publication.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—Much conjecture is being aroused over the appearance in a morning paper of the following advertisement. PERSONAL.—Wanted a burglar on Lakeview avenue, vicinity of Fullerton avenue.

The need of a burglar on that street is somewhat obscured by the declaration of residents that they have been trying for several months to get rid of a few.

Various interpretations of the advertisement have been offered. Detectives suspecting a "deep plot" have made a fruitless investigation. Inquiries brought laughter at most homes in the vicinity. One woman believed that some one's butler had resigned and that a linotype machine had taken liberties with the word.

It is better that we should have a

TEXAS NEEDS REST.

A well known business man struck the nail squarely on the head when he said: "What Texas needs right rest from agitation, and a chance to Texas is not the only state afflicted with freak statesmen. One Tennessee legislator wants to put the lid on the peekaboo, waist and perforated hose and another has introduced a bill to

The discussion of the all absorbing

other such comparatively unimportant matters.

And now the people have got to pay for a new bathtub in the White for the big new president. Isn't it a pity somebody didn't think to tell the people of this before the election, so they could have put in a man to fit the tub?

The great interest manifested in the approaching corn show, which in creases as the time draws near, is an evidence that Brazos county farmers realize more than ever before the im

the necessity for diversification in farmer is safe, no matter what may happen to cotton.

New Bank Building.

The Eagle learns that Mr. F. D. Per petent architects plans for a handsome two or three story brick building to occupy the corner where his building was recently burned. It is also learn ed that the First National Bank has leased the entire building. These statements are not official, but there is no question but what this is the ar

In the meanwhile the First National is having erected, with the consent of the City Council, a temporary struc

they will occupy until the new building
is completed.

Work on the new building will be

Special to the Galveston News
News has been received here that forest fires are raging in the first in the memory of the pres

thicket so damp that it has resisted all ees of the flames, but the long spell has made it susceptible and fires are sweeping through the undergrowth with unabated fury.

Thicket is mainly small timber and growth, and the damage in this it will be of little conse

the mind other buildings in that neighborhood. All the sawmills in the neighborhood of the thicket have shut down later to keep sparks from setting and because the sparks from thicket fire endanger the mills and.

The blith shop at Thicket was destroyed fire and the dwelling of F. O. Hat Bragg was burned dur ing the fire. It is said that the flames in thicket have driven out innumera small game. Rabbits rush from thicket in such num bers that said they run over and trip up people who are in the way.
Millions of oaks which have never been disturbed by man or domestic beast are in into the open. This thicket in parts is practically im penetrable, the fury of a fire in such dense brush can be im agined.

An exciting badger fight was pulled months acted as official badger caller.

FIRE SUNDAY MORNING.

Good Water Pressure Saved City Another Ugly Fire.

A fire alarm about 8 o'clock Sunday morning called out the department and for a time it looked like our little city was doomed to suffer another fearful conflagration.

Some wooden sheds in the rear of James' furniture store filled with boxes and excelsior, was in some way ignited and burned almost like a flash of powder.

The fire boys were on hand promptly however, and with a good water pressure, kept it away from the adjoining buildings.

When the alarm was given, the driver of the fire wagon was at breakfast and as soon as this fact was learned, it was communicated to Mayor Maloney at the Exchange Hotel and he proceeded to get busy. Running to the station he hooked up Burt and Bowser in a jiffy, mounted the wagon and drove them like Jehu the son of Nimshi. Chief Hamilton and others were on hand in short order, lines of hose were laid, the pressure was good, and the rest was easy. Mayor Maloney and the firemen are entitled to the warmest praise.

Mr. W. T. James in appreciation of the good work of the firemen in keeping the flames from his property, on yesterday mailed the Company his check for $10.00. The firemen at a meeting last night gave him a unanimous vote of thanks, and requested the Eagle to convey same to him through its columns.

Rhodes—Peacock.

The marriage of Giles W. Rhodes and Miss Mabel Peacock was solemnized Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 1401 Boulevard, Houston Heights. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John B. Whitford, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church. The bridal party marched to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Mrs. D. D. Cooley.

The bride wore a becoming empire gown of rose colored imported messaline and carried a bouquet of bride roses.

Miss Maude Maze attended the bride as maid of honor and wore a pale blue messaline gown, carrying bridesmaid roses. Mr. Frank M. Pletcher acted as best man.

One corner of the back parlor was banked with ferns to form an altar and the couple stood beneath double hearts, decorated with hyacinths. Green and white decorations were used throughout. The dining table held the immense wedding cake, surrounded by maidenhair ferns and hyacinth, a buffet luncheon being served, consisting of a salad course, cake, coffee and punch.

The couple received many beautiful and useful gifts.

The bride's going-away gown was of smoked colored cloth, worn with a fur hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes left for San Antonio and will be at home after February 1st, at 707 Dallas avenue, Houston.—Houston Chronicle.

Mr. Rhodes is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rhodes of this city and was reared in Bryan. He is a splendid young man and his many friends here extend congratulations, and wish for him and his bride much happiness and prosperity.

For Sale—Nice frame residence of five rooms, cow shed, buggy house, etc. well and cistern water, two lots of ground, situated in N. E. corner of block 113, in the southwest part of Bryan, (known as the J. S. Ford place.) Price reasonable, part cash, balance on easy terms. Apply to C. G. Parsons, owner; at Bottling works or T. R. Batte, agent. 49

Card from Mr. Shelburne.

In this issue of the Morning Eagle appears my announcement as a candidate for the office of City Marshal Bryan, subject to the result of the Democratic Primary to be held at City Hall on Monday, March the 12, next.

In making this announcement I wish to say to the people of Bryan that should I be elected I pledge my divided efforts to the best of my ability to serve as an efficient, painstaking and impartial officer, giving equal rights to all and special privileges to none. I will try to uphold and enforce the law to the letter, without fear or favor. Then, should we have any laws the people will soon find it and, of course, can repeal same in the other hand, whatever good we have the people will enjoy the benefits of same. It appears to me that every law abiding citizen can favor such enforcement of law and order. It is on this plank and that I submit my name to the consideration of the voters of our city.

May I state that I served the city of Bryan in the capacity of Marshal to fill the unexpired term of J. Nall and at the end of said term re-elected and again served two years. I refer to the record I made as a officer, with some degree of mention, to what the people may think should I be successful in this.

Yours truly
C. C. SHELBERN

FELIX BROWN CASE AFFIRMED.

Must Serve all His Life for Murder of Harry Williams.

"The way of the transgressor is hard" and Felix Brown, colored, confined in the county jail, is brought face to face with the awfulness of this great Biblical truth as he realizes that he must spend the remainder of his natural life in penal servitude. He was convicted at the September term of the district court of murder in the first degree. An appeal was taken to the Court of Criminal Appeals, the highest Texas tribunal, and now its mandate has been received, affirming in all things the verdict and sentence of the trial court. He has been confined in jail here pending his appeal, and now that it has been decided, the transfer agent is expected to come in a few days and carry him to Huntsville, where he will bid farewell forever to the pure air and sunshine of freedom.

Brief History of Crime

In the darkness of night early last September a horrible crime was committed at Mudville in the Brazos bottom and a human life was sacrificed to the brutal passion of man. The coming of the morn revealed the crime in all its horrors when the body of Harry Williams, a young white man, was found dead in the lot near the store of H. B. Steele, fearfully mutilated by the hogs. A hasty examination showed that he had been first shot and killed, and the body left where it fell at the mercy of the beasts.

The sheriff's office was notified and Sheriff Nall and Deputy Conlee left at once for the scene. One by one the clues were taken up and worked out to their logical conclusions. The accusing finger pointed to Felix Brown, and as the investigation proceeded, the coils grew tighter and tighter and he was placed under arrest and lodged in jail.

When court convened, the grand jury by indictment charged him with murder in the first degree, and upon trial of the case, twelve "good and lawful" men by their verdict, found him guilty as charged, and now the State's highest court has affirmed their verdict.

The Bravest Song and the Sweetest Song.

The bravest song is the song he sings who is hoping the best he may. While he faithfully helps to do the things that have to be done each day:

The warrior may sing a glorious song as he marches to meet his foe, And the hunter may sing as he hurries along where the quarry is crouching low, But the bravest song is the song of the man who goes when the light is dim To faithfully labor as best he can for the ones who depend on him.

The sweetest song is her song whose es are filled with a righteous pride As she watches the cot where her baby lies while her needle is deftly plied:

The prima donna may grandly trill, and her bird-like notes may be So pure that they never may fail to fill her hearers with ecstasy, And her song is sweet who in rapture brings her lover the faith she should;

But the sweetest song is her song who sings in the joy of young motherhood.

—S. E. Kiser, in Chicago Record-Herald.
